Mr Antonio Tajani
President
EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Brussels, 18 January 2017

Dear President Tajani,

On behalf of the members of the ECCIA, I wish to congratulate you for your election at the Presidency of the European Parliament.

This much-deserved election rewards years of commitment towards the welfare of the European consumers and industries and we wish you the best success for your term.

I take this opportunity to express again our thanks for your relentless support of the European high-end cultural and creative industries and look forward to further collaboration.

Yours Sincerely,

Guillaume de Seynes
Chairman

The European Cultural and Creative Industries Alliance (ECCIA) is composed of the five major European high-end goods and creative industries organisations: Circulo Fortuny (Spain), Comité Colbert (France), Fondazione Altagamma (Italy), Meisterkreis (Germany) and Walpole (UK), who between them represent over 400 high-end brands and cultural institutions.

Based on art, culture and creativity, our work is underpinned by continuous innovation, a relentless focus on quality, highly skilled employment and strong export abroad. Our members strive for the highest quality in all they do, from products and services all the way to the experience offered to consumers.
